- Called Unto Holiness (1936) Ruth Paxson, originally pocket sized pb., 128 pages (of airy, large margin), book size expanded to 6x9 with detailed complementary and correctional notes by Balaicius, 280pp., pb., 18.00 + P&H.
- Calvinism: Pure and Mixed—Reloaded: False Doctrine Exposed: Subtle and Blatant; the entire text (retypeset) of William G.T. Shedd is referred to as a "high Calvinist", but after reading and editing the error in this work, I don't see how he can be called such.
- Difficulties (and Alleged Errors and Contradictions) in the Bible —Examined and Re-examined (1907) Dr. R.A. Torrey, originally 126 pages; it was small print, enlarged and expanded to 9x6, and 466+ pages of complementary and corrective notes by R.A.B. and added Biblical illustrations, pb., 610pp., pb., 26.00 + P&H. - Does God Repent...? Can God Change His Mind...? [And an Utter Demolishment of the Humanistic Myth of Man's "Free Will" and Arminianism], 506pp., 25.00 + P&H. Dovetails nicely with God and Evil and The Sovereignty of God... Lively, profound, revealing, thought provoking, convincing thought, logic, Scripture. Exposes the subversion of true Christian faith in counter reformation re-introducing false theology of Origen and Pelagius and corruption of modern church by Jesuits and crypto-jews and terribly deceived humanists such as Schleiermacher, Kierkegaard, Spinoza, Barth, Schweitzer, Erasmus of Rotterdam, and many more, including undermining of Puritan church by Solomon Stoddard, and much more; also dissects the false theology from one chapter of two different books; one by Dr. Normal Geisler and one by Brother Andrew.
- The Forgotten Secret (Prayer) (1906) Dawson, with Notes on Prayer, by Balaicius, 112pp., pb., 11.00 + P&H.
- The Futurist and Rapture Conspiracy: A Brief Exposé of the History of these Subversive Doctrines—and Their Biblical Refutation, 164pp., pb. well illustrated, 13⁰⁰ + P&H. Very revealing study showing shady characters behind these false doctrines: Futurism, Dispensationalism, "any moment" "two-stage" "Rapture" Return of Christ. Christ is returning; but not according to modern Antichrist heresy; these are new new-age false doctrines, not held by the Reformers or the great Bible leaders of the early modern era.
- God and Evil: Did God Create Sin and Evil. The Facts of My Imaginary, Evanescent Heresy Trial - The Death Knell of Arminianism at the Hand of the Word of God, 280pp., pb., 18⁰⁰ + P&H.
- God, Man, and The Universe: How Everything Came To Be — The Ancient History of the Earth as Related in the 7 Days of Creation [Genesis Chapters 1 and 2] — A Youth Curriculum Including Practical Information that Relates to Many Important Areas of Modern Life, (also an intro. to logical thinking, the Reformers, the U.S. Founded as a Christian Nation, exposing medical & economic conspiracy, debunking evolution, and much more.) Questions and answers, challenging, enlightening, over 1,000 illustrations, unique insight, graspable by younger youth, but not condescending for older youth or even adults; fascinating presentation. 8.5"x7" paperback, 438pp., 25⁰⁰ + P&H.
- History of Puritans & Pilgrim Fathers (1888) which incorporates: The Puritans in England (1849) W.H. Stowell, & The Pilgrim Fathers (1849) D. Wilson, 508pp.; with added 230pp. by R.A.B. (500 hours of research /writing) of historical and theological introduction to the Reformers, Puritans, Pilgrims, Nonconformists, Covenanters, the Westminster Assembly, the history of the Anglican Church and Presbyterian Church in England, Ireland, Scotland, and Wales, the Anglican Church and monarchs of Britain in their persecution of those Protestants who disagreed with the Anglican Church's Catholic ritual, and an insightful look at the Great Awakening and revivals in England, Ireland, Scotland (and its Isle of Lewis) Wales, and New England; with over 800 short biographies and over 250 illustrations added; total c.740pp.; 7x8.5, 35.00 + P&H.
- Just One More Chance, Lorne J. Shields / Robert Alan Balaicius, 564pp., pb., 25.00 + P&H. The story begins in Ireland and progresses like a whirlwind, which, to explain more would give away the suspense of the story. A gripping read you will not be able to put down and one of those rare books that you wish would never end. · One rash decision, a regrettable mistake, can snowball and cause a chain-reaction like an avalanche; so-far reaching one may wonder if it can be outrun even if he flees to the other side of the world. When such a brief mistake is made, as Tom McCauley finds out, it can carry you about like a beach-ball in the ocean, and all you can do is hang on for dear life and pray to God that you land safely, somewhere, eventually. · Here begins a touching story of down-to-earth people (well... most of them) often real life stories from an earlier era. A story of love and romance interwoven with cultures spanning several nations of a bye-gone era, hard work, drama, intrigue, foul-play, good versus evil, faithfulness, respect, devotion, desperation, and hope combined with real historical events. The epic story of all creation is presented in a whirl: a momentary fall from grace followed by repeated attempts at restoration, while battling a myriad of unforeseen obstacles to that goal which creep out of the past into the present like vipers from a pit that just won't die. not be the same after reading this book; you may become a part of the drama itself: your heart knit with those of this story, as if they were family or dear friends. At least, that is how it affected me. Step back into the 1800s and enjoy an amazing story. . . . I cannot help but think of a paragraph penned by the eminent Charles Dickens, which shares similar sentiments with this moving, gripping, lively, fascinating story: “It was the best of times, it was the worst of times, it was the age of wisdom, it was the age of foolishness, it was the epoch of belief, it was the epoch of incredulity, it was the season of Light, it was the season of Darkness, it was the spring of hope, it was the winter of despair, we had everything before us, we had nothing before us, we were all going direct to heaven, we were all going direct the other way — in short, the period was so far like the present period, that some of its noisiest authorities insisted on its being received, for good or for evil, in the superlative degree of comparison only.” (A Tale of Two Cities) —Editor, Adapter, Publisher, R.A.B. must read. could be next Hallmark movie / miniseries

Bible history and prophecy are real; not mythology or fable; without understanding who you are / God’s Plan, there is no way you can know what God requires or how you are supposed to fit in that plan.
